“THE OTHER ITALY”: A LEISURELY TOUR OF ITALY’S SOUTHERN PROVINCE OF PUGLIA - PLUS ROME

14 days, Friday, September 23, to Thursday, October 6, 2016

A leisurely exploration of the isolated and little-known, but scenic and fascinating “heel” of the Italian “boot,” the province of Puglia (a.k.a. Apulia), offering fabulous coastal and mountain scenery, Ancient Greek as well as Roman, Medieval, and Baroque historical towns, sites and monuments - and delicious food and fine wines! This “upscale” tour, which concludes with three glorious days in Rome, is offered in collaboration with Bespoke Travel of Oakville, Ontario, and will be escorted by Audrey Johnston and historian Jacques R. Pauwels, PhD, who will lecture on the history of Puglia and Italy in general.

Tour price, based on double occupancy: $5,275 CAD from Toronto, plus airport taxes/fuel surcharges of approximately $600 - “Land only” (from Brindisi Airport to Rome Fiumicino Airport): $4,875 - Single supplement: $1,250

TOUR ITINERARY:

Day 1 – Friday, September 23: Late evening departure on Alitalia’s non-stop flight from Toronto to Rome.

Day 2 – Saturday, September 24: Arrival in Rome in early afternoon, and short connecting flight to Brindisi, one of the major cities in the Italian province of Apulia, known as Puglia in Italian. A private coach will be waiting to take us immediately to Lecce, an Apulian city famous for its baroque churches and palaces. Check into the centrally-located 5-star/deluxe Hotel Risorgimento Resort (www.risorgimentoresort.it) and free time to settle in. Welcome drink and dinner in the hotel’s fine restaurant.

Day 3 – Sunday, September 25: Morning walking tour of Lecce. Known as the “Baroque Florence,” this city features countless buildings and monuments in the Baroque style typical for its “golden age,” lasting from the 16th to the 18th centuries, such as Santa Croce Basilica and other churches with exuberant exteriors as well as interiors, the palaces along elegant Via Palmieri, and harmonious Piazza del Duomo, one of most beautiful squares in southern Italy. In the afternoon we enjoy a leisurely drive around the tip of the “heel” of the Italian “boot,” a region known as the Salento. Stops will be made in Otranto, the most oriental of all Italian cities, overlooking the narrow stretch of water between the Adriatic and the Ionian Seas, known as the Strait of Otranto, and Gallipoli, an ancient town on an offshore island. Return to Lecce and dinner in a typical ristorante.

Day 4 – Monday, September 26: Full-day excursion to the Adriatic seaport of Brindisi, in Antiquity the terminus of the famous Appian Way, still marked today by two Roman columns; and the hilltop town of Ostuni, an architectural jewel commonly referred to as “the White Town” for its mostly white-painted architecture. We will also be introduced to the fine wines of Puglia during a visit to Castel di Salve, one of the province’s leading wineries! (www.casteldisalve.com). Lunch OR dinner in a typical trattoria.

Day 5 – Tuesday, September 27: Excursion to Taranto, one of the most important Greek seaports in southern Italy since the time when the ancient Greeks settled here, in the land they called Megalè Hellas (Latin: Magna Graecia), “Greater Greece.” The quaint old town occupies a peninsula tucked between a bay of the Gulf of Taranto, called Mar Grande, “Big Sea,” and a lagoon called Mar Piccola, “Little Sea.” Highlights will be the palm tree-lined waterfront promenade, the Aragonese Castle, the Cathedral, and the remains of a Greek temple. We also visit the National Archaeological Museum, featuring countless mementoes of the Hellenic past of this city and region, including beautiful statues and vases, and there will be some free time for shopping. Late afternoon return to our hotel in Lecce. Today, group lunch OR dinner in a typical restaurant.

Day 6 – Wednesday, September 28: Departure from Lecce after breakfast. We motor via the picturesque walled town of Locorotondo, where we stop for a mid-morning cappuccino, to the region of the “Trulli,” curious dwellings with conical roofs in and around the town of Alberobello, a UNESCO

World Heritage Site (<http://whc.unesco.org/en/list/787>) In the afternoon we continue to Matera, the picturesque little capital of the mountainous province of Basilicata, whose name conjures up the title of the Byzantine governors of southern Italy, basilos. The main attraction here are the Sassi, “pebbles,” a troglodyte settlement of houses, some of them already inhabited in the Stone Age, and no less than 130 ancient Byzantine churches (<http://whc.unesco.org/en/list/670>). Late afternoon arrival in Bari, Puglia’s biggest city and a busy Adriatic seaport connecting Italy to Greece. Dinner and overnight in the centrally located 4-star/first-class Hotel Oriente (www.orientehotelbari.com).

Day 7 – Thursday, September 29: Morning sightseeing tour of Bari, with as highlights the impressive Romanesque Basilica dedicated to the immensely popular Saint Nicholas with his Turkish-Greek connection (to be explained by your tour guide), the Cathedral, the castle built by German Emperor Frederick II, and the rest of the attractive, labyrinthine old town (Bari Vecchia) as well as the monumental waterfront. Afternoon free to shop, explore the city on your own, and/or visit museums like the Archaeological Museum and the Pinacoteca, featuring Byzantine icons as well as paintings by Italian masters such as Tintoretto, Bellini, Veronese, and De Chirico. Dinner in a typical restaurant of the old town.

Day 8 – Friday, September 30: Departure from Bari after breakfast. We motor inland and visit Castel del Monte, a mighty medieval castle in a lonely but scenic setting, built by Emperor Frederick II and a unique blend of Cistercian and other occidental as well as oriental, i.e. Byzantine and Islamic, architecture (<http://whc.unesco.org/en/list/398>). Return to the Adriatic Coast via the area that witnessed the 216BC Battle of Cannae, Hannibal’s most famous victory against the Romans, a perfect excuse for your tour guide to talk about the Carthaginian Wars. We pause in the town of Barletta, an important seaport in Antiquity and in the Middle Ages, to view the “Colossus,” a huge bronze 4th-century statue of a Roman emperor. Then we continue along the coast to the mountainous and forested Gargano Peninsula, the “spur” of the Italian boot, one of Italy’s most unusual and scenic regions. Dinner and overnight in the 4-star/first-class Palace Hotel, centrally located in the picturesque coastal town of Vieste (www.palacehotelvieste.it/en).

Michael’s Way, which started in Cornwall and reached Italy via a string of other famous sanctuaries devoted to the Archangel, such as the Mont St. Michel. And we finish with a scenic drive along the peninsula’s magnificent coast, dotted with fabulous beaches, rocky promontories, and offshore rocks known as faraglioni, plus quaint resorts such as Vieste, where we return in late afternoon for some individual exploration and shopping, followed by dinner again in the restaurant of our hotel.

Day 10 – Sunday, October 2: Scenic all-day drive to Rome, a total distance of just over 400 km. First we continuing to follow the Adriatic coastline, leaving Puglia and entering the small province of Molise, tucked between the Adriatic and the Apennine Mountains. Short stop in the seaside resort and seaport of Termoli, liberated in the fall of 1943 by Canadian troops who called it “Maple Leaf City”! Then we turn inland, enter the Abruzzi region, and cross the rugged Abruzzo National Park, with its forest-covered mountains inhabited by a variety of wildlife, including bears and wolves. Lunch of hearty regional culinary specialties in a typical restaurant! Via the town of Sulmona we reach Rome in late afternoon. Accommodation in the excellent 4-star/first-class Hotel Delle Nazioni, which will be our home for the next 4 nights (www.hotel-dellenazioni-rome.com/en); this highly-rated hotel is superbly located in the heart of Rome, just around the corner from the Trevi Fountain and close to the Spanish Steps, the Pantheon, Piazza Venezia, the shops of the famous pedestrian Via dei Condotti, etc.

Day 11 – Monday, October 3: Morning exploration of “Imperial Rome,” featuring the still very impressive ruins dating back to the time of the Roman Empire and rulers such as Caesar, Augustus, Nero, and Trajan. Highlights will include the Colosseum, the Imperial Forums and the Roman Forum (flanked by the over-the-top Monument to King Victor Emmanuel, known as the “Wedding Cake”!), the Circus Maximus, the triumphal arches of Constantine and Titus, and Trajan’s Column. In the afternoon, leisurely walking tour to the Trevi Fountain and the Spanish Steps. Group dinner in our hotel or in a neighbouring restaurant.

The Tiber, St. Peter’s Basilica, and St. Angel’s Castle on a painting of 1834 by Rudolf Wiegmann (illustration, free of copyright c/o Wikimedia Commons) >

Day 12 – Tuesday, October 4: This morning we focus on Vatican City, with thorough visits to St. Peter’s Basilica with its huge central altar, papal crypt, treasury, massive dome and Michelangelo’s evocative Pietà, as well as the Vatican Museum, featuring frescoes by Raphael, paintings by Giotto, and antiquities such as the celebrated Hellenistic sculpture, Laocoön. But the absolute highlight will of course be the Sistine Chapel, venue of the papal elections, with Michelangelo’s superb paintings. In the afternoon, leisurely exploration (on foot) of the picturesque district around Piazza Navona and the Pantheon. Dinner in a popular trattoria.

Day 13 – Wednesday, October 5: Your last day in Rome is at leisure, except for this evening “arrivederci”-dinner in a typical ristorante!
