Day 4 – Monday, July 23:

Munich

Breakfast followed by a private tour of Munich Opera house. Discover a new side to the Munich opera by taking a tour of the National theater. The tour is full of essential facts about the various goings-on in the theatre as well as all the hard work that needs to be done before we can say: "Curtains up!" You'll hear interesting stories about the architecture, and the famous people who've influenced the opera house over the last 350 years. The tour includes the Royal Hall, the Ionic Hall, the auditorium and, depending on availability, the stage area.

To learn more about the world of opera, particularly the people who keep the performances running, we offer the following special event. Starting with an exclusive tour of the Bayerische Staatsoper, which includes access to areas of the theatre not open to the public, and going on to give you background information about the history of the opera house, the absolute highlight of the event is meeting members of the company, who will share their interesting "behind the scenes" jobs with you at a world-famous opera house (such as the Artist Management Department), thus providing a very special insight into the world of opera. Balance of the day free.

A WORD ABOUT GROUP AIR.

Please note that when booking one of our air inclusive tours, Pauwels Travel has negotiated reduced rates with the airline that we are able to confirm and lock in up to 359 days before travel. While it is wonderful to share the savings and flexibility this provides with you our valued guests, the privilege does come with some restrictions. In some cases it may not be possible to collect frequent flyer miles, in some cases you may not be able to check in online 24 hours before travel or you may need to try checking in with your ticket number rather than your booking reference and, in almost ALL cases we are not able to offer advanced seat selection.

It is the airline that makes the live reservation and has control over the booking so it is their policy not ours that prevents us from assigning you specific seats. I assure you if a request is made it is followed up on by our staff when they submit the names 30 to 60 days prior to departure. Calling us several days before you go will not change this fact nor will getting upset with our staff.

If the ideal seat is an absolute must for you we suggest you book our tour land only and make your own air arrangements so you can better control the individual booking. Pauwels would be happy to assist you with that reservation at absolutely no additional charge. We will offer you the best fare we can find but note this can only be done once a tour is a guaranteed departure and the rules and booking conditions of the applicable airfare will apply.

We thank you in advance for your kind understanding of the above.
