“FROM NORMANDY TO FLANDERS FIELDS”

A TOUR OF THE CANADIAN BATTLEFIELDS OF WORLD WARS I AND II

Friday, November 5 to Monday, November 15, 2021

An 11-day thorough exploration of the battlefields of France and Belgium, focusing on the Canadian contributions to Allied victory in Flanders' Fields, at Vimy, the Somme, and of course Normandy. Our participation in the annual Remembrance Day commemoration in Ypres, hub of Flanders' Fields', will be a highlight! First-class/four-star hotels, excellent meals, and history lectures by your tour escort, Jacques Pauwels or Michael Quinn.

PROPOSED ITINERARY

(Meals included in addition to daily breakfast: L = lunch; D = dinner)

Day 1 - Friday, November 5:

Evening departure from Toronto to Paris. Dinner and a light breakfast will be served during the flight.

Day 2 - Saturday, November 6: (D)

Morning arrival at Paris CDG Airport. Transfer by private coach to the picturesque Normandy seaport of Honfleur, associated with Samuel de Champlain, who sailed from here in 1608 to found the city of Quebec and the colony of New France! Check into our centrally located hotel. Free time to settle in. Late afternoon exploratory walk, followed by dinner.

Days 3 & 4 - Sunday, November 7, Monday, November 8:

Two full days of sightseeing in Normandy, focusing on the 1944 landing beaches. Among the highlights will be Pegasus Bridge; Juno Beach, the Canadian sector of the landing beaches, with the excellent Juno Beach Centre in Courseulles-sur-Mer; the Canadian War Cemetery of Bény-sur-Mer; Arromanches with the remains of the great artificial 'Mulberry' harbour; Ardenne Abbey, where Canadian POWs were executed by SS troops; Bretteville Canadian War Cemetery in the area of the Falaise Gap; Caen, the city of William the Conqueror, carefully rebuilt after being destroyed during the fighting in 1944; and the picturesque town of Bayeux, with its famous Tapestry, a medieval embroidered "comic strip" showing the conquest of England by William, Duke of Normandy. Late afternoons return to Honfleur and free evenings.

Canadian troops disembarking at Bernières - Juno Beach.

Day 5 - Tuesday, November 9: (D)

After breakfast, departure for Dieppe, another Normandy seaport, where Canadian troops landed in August 1942. Visits to both the Canadian Memorial (at the infamous beach) and nearby War Cemetery. On for a drive along the English Channel coast, with wonderful views of the "White Cliffs of Dover" (if weather permits) and a stop in Wimereux, just outside Boulogne, to visit the grave of John McRae, author of the poem "In Flanders' Fields." We also view some remains of the German Atlantic Wall, including a "big gun" emplacement. Continuing via Calais and the entrance to the "Chunnel", we reach Dunkirk, where we walk on the beach that witnessed the evacuation of British troops in 1940. Crossing the Belgian border, we pause near the little seaport of Nieuwpoort and the mouth of the Yser River, where in 1914-1918, the frontline ended with barbed wire stretched across the beach into the North Sea. Our final destination today is Bruges, arguably the best-preserved medieval town in all of Europe. In 1944, the city was liberated by a Canadian Army unit from Manitoba' a feat commemorated by a monument at the entrance to the city, called the Canada Bridge. Accommodation in a charming 4-star hotel, and dinner in a typical restaurant.

Day 6 - Wednesday, November 10:

This morning, leisurely walking tour of old Bruges. Highlights include the Belfry, symbol of the city; the Church of Our Lady; the Gothic Town Hall; Medieval St. John's Hospital; the scenic canals that crisscross the town; the Lake of Love; and the romantic Beguinage. Remainder of the day at leisure. This evening, an optional dinner of Flemish culinary specialties during which we will be entertained by musicians specializing in medieval music but who will also treat us to songs of WW I.

Day 7 - Thursday, November 11: (L) REMEMBRANCE DAY!

This morning we travel by local train to the town of Ieper (French: Ypres), hub of “Flanders Fields,” to attend the moving Remembrance Day ceremony at the Menin Gate, the principal British War Memorial in the area. (Please note that our participation is subject to government regulations and permission.) After a group lunch in a typical restaurant, visit to the excellent Flanders’ Fields War Museum, located in the famous Cloth Hall, an impressive medieval building destroyed during WW I but carefully reconstructed in following decades (www.inflandersfields.be). Also visit to St. George Memorial Chapel with its remembrance memorials and plaques to the fallen before we return to Bruges.

Day 8 - Friday, November 12: (L)

Today we explore the area along the nearby Belgian-Dutch border where the Canadian Army fought the crucial “Battle of the Scheldt” in the Fall of 1944. After short visits to memorials at Moerbrugge and Moerkerke, we stop at the Canadian War Cemetery in the village of Adegem to conduct a personalized memorial service together with members of the local Belgian-Canadian Association who will also join us for lunch and a tour of the nearby Canadian War Museum. Afternoon return to Bruges and remainder of day at leisure.

Detail of the Vimy Memorial

Day 9 - Saturday, November 13:

Early departure from Bruges to Vimy for a comprehensive tour of the impressive Canadian Memorial, Battlefield Park and Interpretation Centre. On to the Somme Battlefield, scene of General Haig’s “Big Push”, i.e., the great British offensive launched on July 1, 1916. Sites enroute will include the Newfoundland Caribou Monument and small museum at Beaumont-Hamel; the Ulster Memorial Tower; the massive British Memorial of Thiepval; the Canadian Monument of Courcellette (www.wwi-battlefields.co.uk/somme.html). Late afternoon arrival at our hotel in Roissy, located near our Paris departure airport of Charles de Gaulle.

Day 10 - Sunday, November 14: (L)

Full-day excursion to the city of Reims for a visit to the "War Room", the venue that witnessed the German surrender at the end of the Second World War, on May 7, 1945. Following a gourmet Au Revoir lunch in an elegant country restaurant, we explore the "Glade of the Armistice" in the Compiègne Forest. It features the reconstructed railway car that served as Marshal Foch’s HQ, in which the Germans surrendered on November 11, 1918. (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Glade_of_the_Armistice.) Return to the hotel and evening free to pack your suitcase!

A WORD ABOUT GROUP AIRFARES:

Please note that when booking one of our air inclusive tours, Pauwels Travel has negotiated reduced rates with the airline that we are able to confirm and lock in up to 359 days before travel. While it is wonderful to share the savings and flexibility this provides with you, our valued guests, the privilege does come with some restrictions. In some cases it may not be possible to collect frequent flyer miles, you may not be able to check in online 24 hours before travel, or you may need to try checking in with your ticket number rather than your booking reference and, in almost ALL cases we are not able to offer advanced seat selection.

It is the airline that makes the reservation and has control over the booking so it is their policy, not ours, that prevents us from assigning specific seats. If a request is made, it is passed on to the airline by our staff when they submit the names to the airline, i.e., 30-60 days prior to departure. Calling us several days before you leave will not change this fact nor will getting upset with our staff.

If a certain type of seat is indispensable to you, we suggest that you book our tour on a "land only" basis and make individual flight arrangements, in which case you may be able to get the seat of your choice; Pauwels Travel would be happy to assist you with that reservation at absolutely no additional charge. We will offer you the best fare available, but please note that this can only be done once a tour is a guaranteed departure because your individual airfare's conditions are likely to involve cancellation penalties. We thank you in advance for your kind understanding of the above!
