MARITIME MEDLEY
(Thursday, September 16 to Saturday, September 25, 2021)

A ten-day maritime medley of Celtic heritage and Acadian influences in Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick.

Day 1- Thursday September 16: (D)

Our tour begins in Fredericton, New Brunswick. Upon arrival, panoramic city tour and opportunity to visit the Loyalist Burial Grounds and the Military Compound. After lunch we travel to St. John. Following hotel registration, a stroll before our welcome dinner.

Day 2- Friday September 17:

Today given over to viewing one of the great natural wonders of the world - the powerful tidal movement in the Bay of Fundy. Our sites of viewing this natural phenomenon are determined by the tidal charts and should allow us to also visit St. Andrews and perhaps catch sight of Campobello Island, long associated with Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Day 3-Saturday September 18: (D)

After breakfast we travel to Prince Edward Island. En route, our first stop will be Moncton, where we witness yet another natural phenomenon, "Magnetic Hill". We continue on to Shediac in time for lunch before following the picturesque coastal road to Cape Tormentine. The Confederation Bridge allows us to easily cross the Northumberland Strait for a late afternoon arrival in Charlottetown.

Day 4- Sunday September 19:

We visit Somerset this morning before continuing on to Cavendish and all that Lucy Maud Montgomery evoked with her quintessential novel. A walk on the beach is a must before returning to Charlottetown. Remainder of day to leisurely explore the site of Confederation.

Day 5- Monday September 20: (D)

Morning Charlottetown departure to Wood Islands. Here we board the ferry that will take us to Caribou, Nova Scotia. Lunch in Antigonish before arrival at Cape Breton Island. Our route will take us by way of Bras d'Or Lake, site of Alexander Graham Bell's famous hydrofoil experiments, to Baddeck, home for the next two nights.

Day 6- Tuesday September 21:

Today we enjoy the classic scenic tour of the Cabot Trail as it winds and climbs along the Gulf of St. Lawrence. The community of Chéticamp will offer us an experience of Acadian cuisine and culture before we reach Cape North and begin our descent past the famous Keltic Lodge to the Baddeck area. Opportunity to visit the Bell National Historic Site.

Day 7- Wednesday September 22: (D)

A leisurely breakfast before a scenic drive to the magnificently restored fortress of Louisbourg. The day will be spent experiencing the garrison life of the French and English soldiers and settlers. The many presentations and an 18thC lunch will add to the reality. After crossing the Canso Causeway, a late afternoon arrival in Halifax. An orientation stroll before dinner and an evening to enjoy harbour nightlife.

Day 8- Thursday September 23:

Guided morning walking tour of the city's principal sites including Province House, St. Paul's Anglican Church, the Old Burying Ground and the Art Gallery of Nova Scotia. After lunch, a visit to the Citadel National Historic Site. Remainder of afternoon and evening at leisure.

Day 9- Friday September 24: (D)

After breakfast we travel to Peggy's Cove for the quintessential photo-op of our nation's signature Lighthouse. A scramble over the fascinating rock formations then on to Lunenburg, home port to the famous "dime" schooner Bluenose. Return to Halifax and opportunity for individual activities...a touch of retail Maritime therapy perhaps? This evening, however, our farewell dinner.

Day 10-Saturday September 25:

Our tour comes to an end with breakfast this morning.
