"PALERMO AND THE BEST OF SICILY"

12 days, Tuesday, November 24, to Sunday, December 5, 2021

A leisurely and 'upscale' exploration of the biggest and most beautiful island in the Mediterranean, a part of Italy, of course, but in many ways a different planet! Based in a deluxe hotel in the wonderful capital, Palermo, we will enjoy many local treasures, including superb Byzantine churches and mosaics, and also explore the major attractions of the island's western part, including the Greek temples of Segesta, Selinunte, and Agrigento; the seaports of Trapani and Marsala, and picturesque towns such as Erice and Cefalu. Next we head east via the Canadian War Cemetery at Agira to explore the island's second city, Catania, and nearby Mount Etna, Europe's biggest volcano! The tour will feature fine food and wine and be hosted by historian Jacques R. Pauwels, PhD, author of 'Beneath the Dust of Time: A History of the Names of Peoples and Places' (London, 2009), who will lecture about the history of the island from the time of the prehistoric Siculi people, who gave their name to the island, to Sicily's liberation in 1943 by Allied, including Canadian, forces.

Tour cost "Land only" (i.e., from Palermo hotel November 24 to Catania hotel on December 5. A group transfer between the airports and hotels will be offered. Times are to be advised. Participants are welcome to use that transfer free of charge. We suggest you book your flights to coincide with the transfers.): $3,010.00.
Supplement for "double room for single use": $550.00

REGISTER NOW WITHOUT DEPOSIT!

Please note that at this time the best available airfare to Sicily is $916.00, including one checked bag. However, we are unable to book flights until we know we can operate the tour which, due to Covid-19, is not yet the case. We therefore require no deposit from those who wish to register for the tour. As soon as it will be possible to confirm the tour and flights can be booked, we will advise and a deposit will be required at that time. That means registering now does not involve a firm commitment, it only means that, when the time comes, you will be able to decide to go ahead or opt out without any penalty!

ITINERARY:

Day 1 - Wednesday, November 24: Individual arrival to the centrally-located five-star/deluxe Grand Hotel Wagner. Free time to settle in. Welcome dinner in the hotel or in a nearby restaurant. Transfers between the airport and hotel will be offered to participants arriving at 2:35PM or earlier.

Day 2 – Thursday, November 25: Full-day sightseeing tour of Palermo, with highlights such as the Palace of the Norman kings of Medieval Sicily and the adjoining Palatine Chapel, whose interior is entirely covered in mosaics; the superb Cathedral and its tombs of Sicilian Kings, including Norman king Roger II and Frederick II, who was also German emperor; the wonderful Byzantine and/or Norman churches of San Cattaudo and La Martorana; the impressive Baroque sculptures of the Quattro Canti; Piazza Pretoria, etc.

The fabulous mosaics in Monreale >

Day 3 – Friday, November 26: Morning sidetrip to Monreale, a picturesque hilltop town overlooking the fertile valley known as Conca d'Oro or “golden shell,” as well as Palermo and the Mediterranean Sea. Visits to the fabulous Cathedral with its outstanding mosaics, a splendid example of “Sicilian-Norman” art, and the adjoining cloisters, inspired by Islamic architecture and featuring wonderful Romanesque pillars and capitals. On to the seaside resort of Mondello, situated on a beautiful inlet of the Tyrrhenian Sea, where we break for lunch. In the afternoon, return to Palermo via the Monte Pellegrino mountain road, offering spectacular views of the coast, with a stop briefly to inspect the immensely popular shrine of St. Rosalia, patron saint of the city. Today, group lunch for dinner.

UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE SITES VISITED ON THIS TOUR:

Palermo with its Arab-Norman architecture – Church and Byzantine mosaics of Monreale – Church and Byzantine mosaics of Cefalu – Agrigento with its Greek temples — Mount Etna.

For more information, see: Unesco World Heritage sites of Sicily

Day 4 – Friday, November 27: This morning we check out Palermo’s famous Vucciria market, then explore the surrounding old harbour district, the city’s historical cradle, dating back to the time of the Phoenicians, with sights such as Piazza Marina, Garibaldi Gardens, the monumental city gate known as Porta Felice, and churches such as Santa Maria della Catena and San Domenico. The rest of the day is free to shop and/or explore the city on your own. Free evening, and perhaps it will be possible to enjoy a classical music concert, ballet or opera in the magnificent Teatro Massimo, the equally imposing Teatro Politeama, or another venue.

Day 5 – Saturday, November 28: After a leisurely late breakfast, visit to the National Archaeological Museum, famous for its rare Phoenician and outstanding Greco-Roman antiquities. The rest of the day is free. You may want to visit another local museum or art gallery, perhaps the Regional Art Gallery of Sicily, housed within the Palazzo Abatellis, a 15th-century Gothic palace, or enjoy a stroll through the Botanical Gardens. Another option - but not for the faint-hearted! - is to accompany your guide to the Capuchin Catacombs, where approximately 8,000 mummified corpses are on display, described as “the place where the living meet the dead”!

Day 6 – Sunday, November 29: Excursion along Sicily’s northern coast to the very picturesque town of Cefalu, tucked between a huge rock and the blue Mediterranean, nicknamed the “Sicilian Gibraltar.” The highlight of our visit will be the fabulous cathedral and its mosaics, featuring a superb ‘Christ Pantocrator’. On the way back to Palermo, we will stop to inspect the ruins of the Greek temple of Himera, site of a famous victory of the Greeks against the Carthaginians in 480 BC. This evening, dinner in a popular trattoria near our hotel.

Day 7 – Monday, November 30: Today we explore the extreme western region of Sicily, a fascinating landscape of windmills, salt pans, vineyards, and fascinating old towns, some founded by the Phoenicians about 3,000 years ago! We begin with a tour of the old town, harbour, and picturesque fish market of Trapani. Travel along a coastline sprinkled with salt flats and windmills to the seaport of Marsala. Here we visit historical Cape Lilibeo as well as an excellent museum, featuring the “Marsala Ship” the earliest warship known from archeological evidence, a Carthaginian warship discovered in 1971. Marsala produces a sweet wine, made famous by English merchants in the 19th century, so we dutifully drop into a local cantina to taste this delicious product! In the afternoon, visit to Erice, a small medieval town situated atop a cliff rising abruptly 750 meters above sea level. We enjoy breathtaking views, possibly as far as the coast of North Africa, from the ruins of the castle, built on the foundations of a temple dedicated to Astarte, the Phoenician Aphrodite, allegedly associated with ‘sacred prostitution’. Erice is the perfect place to enjoy a mid-afternoon gelato or cappuccino break and to try some pastries in the famous shop of Maria Grammatico. Return to our hotel in the early evening.

< View of Trapani and the Aegadian Islands from the hilltop town of Erice

Day 8 – Tuesday, December 1: After breakfast, we board our coach and motor to Segesta, where a superb lone Greek temple dominates a grandiose landscape of rugged mountains, a peaceful valley, and the Mediterranean in the distance. On to the southern coast of the island for visits to the fascinating ancient quarries at Cusa and the impressive ruins of the temples on the site of the Greek city of Selinunte. Opportunity to enjoy a seafood lunch in a restaurant on the beach. Return to Palermo in late afternoon.

Day 9 – Wednesday, December 2: Our last full day in Palermo is entirely at leisure. An optional full-day excursion will be available to the Aegadian Islands (Italian: Isole Egadi), a mini-archipelago of three islands rising from crystal-clear blue waters off the western tip of Sicily. The Romans defeated the Carthaginians in a naval battle fought here in 241BC, as a result of which Sicily became a Roman possession. Our visit will focus on the island of Favignana, epicenter of the historic tuna fisheries, known as the mattanza or “slaughter.”

Day 10 – Thursday, December 3: Departure from Palermo after breakfast. We motor to Agrigento, a town on the south coast of Sicily, for a guided tour of the spectacular collection of very well-preserved Greek temples and the excellent local archaeological museum. In the afternoon we continue to Canadian War Cemetery at Agira, an opportunity for your tour guide to tell you about the Canadian army’s role in the liberation of the island in 1943. Late afternoon arrival in Sicily’s second city, Catania, a bustling seaport situated on Sicily’s eastern coast at the foot of 3,330-meter high Mount Etna, the island’s huge volcano. Accommodation in the first-class Hotel Parco degli Aragonesi, situated in a garden near the shores of the Ionian Sea. Dinner in the hotel’s restaurant.

Mt. Etna with Catania in the foreground

Day 11 – Friday, December 4: After breakfast we visit Catania’s famous fish market, the Cathedral with the tomb of a famous native son, the composer Bellini, and the famous main street, the Via Etnea, as well as the ruins of Roman monuments that survived the major historical eruptions of Mount Etna. Then we tour the slopes of Mount Etna, Europe’s highest volcano, classified as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. This excursion features desolate lunar landscapes of molten lava sprinkled with ruins of homes abandoned during recent eruptions, but also prosperous villages whose inhabitants rely on the rich volcanic soil to produce wonderful products such as wine, honey, cheese, and fruit. We will pause at the Sapienza Research Station, situated at an altitude of almost 2,000 meters, to inspect the Monti Silvestri, cones formed by eruptions during the 1980s. Group lunch of delicious Sicilian specialties in a winery on the slopes of Mt Etna, with great views (weather permitting) of the coast and the Ionian Sea below! Time permitting there will be an opportunity for some shopping in Catania before we return to the hotel for a free evening.

Day 12 – Sunday, December 5: After a late breakfast, short transfer to nearby Catania Airport in time for the departure of our return flight to Toronto, via Rome, with Alitalia.

A WORD ABOUT GROUP AIRFARES:

Please note that when booking one of our air inclusive tours, Pauwels Travel has negotiated reduced rates with the airline that we are able to confirm and lock in up to 359 days before travel. While it is wonderful to share the savings and flexibility this provides with you, our valued guests, the privilege does come with some restrictions. In some cases it may not be possible to collect frequent flyer miles, you may not be able to check in online 24 hours before travel, or you may need to try checking in with your ticket number rather than your booking reference and, in almost ALL cases we are not able to offer advanced seat selection.

It is the airline that makes the reservation and has control over the booking so it is their policy, not ours, that prevents us from assigning specific seats. If a request is made, it is passed on to the airline by our staff when they submit the names to the airline, i.e., 30-60 days prior to departure. Calling us several days before you leave will not change this fact nor will getting upset with our staff.

If a certain type of seat is indispensable to you, we suggest that you book our tour on a "land only" basis and make individual flight arrangements, in which case you may be able to get the seat of your choice; Pauwels Travel would be happy to assist you with that reservation at absolutely no additional charge. We will offer you the best fare available, but please note that this can only be done once a tour is a guaranteed departure because your individual airfare's conditions are likely to involve cancellation penalties. We thank you in advance for your kind understanding of the above!
