THE WARING HOUSE

PROPOSED ITINERARY

Monday, April 26:

Make your way to The Waring House (www.waringhouse.com) near Picton in Prince Edward County. Arrive in time to settle into your premium room, check out the property, and then meet for a welcome glass of sparkling wine before our first group dinner at the in house restaurant, Amelia's Garden.

Tuesday, April 27:

Today after breakfast, we have a private vehicle and driver to take us to the wineries and farms of Closson Road. Four winery stops with tastings are included, as is a picnic lunch with wine in a vineyard.

Time permitting, we'll visit a buffalo farm to learn about cheese production and perhaps an alpaca farm and/or a lavender farm. We'll have some time for R&R back at the house before heading into Picton as a group for dinner with wine.

Wednesday, April 28:

Breakfast followed by another day of exploring Prince Edward County. Today's focus will be more on beer and cider. Prince Edward County is home to some excellent craft breweries and pubs, featuring great hospitality and tempting cuisine.

Again, we'll have our private transportation as we explore the region's star producers and enjoy a French Canadian-style lunch with the bonus of a stunning view. Back at the Waring House, we are in for a three-course wine appreciation dinner (theme to be determined) led by the house sommelier in Amelia's Garden Dining Room.

Thursday, April 29:

Thursday after breakfast, you are free to enjoy the day as you like. Shop, visit some more wineries, cycle or hike. But be back in time for our evening cooking class at the Waring House Cookery School. We'll be coached by the chef (menu to be determined) and then sit down to enjoy our handiwork with matching wines. This will be a great opportunity to revisit some of the fun experiences, share photos with the group, and celebrate our ability to travel once again.

Friday, April 30:

Our farewell breakfast before checking out and heading off in our own direction.
