TANZANIA:

Tanzania, officially the “United Republic of Tanzania,” is a state composed of 26 regions, including the semi- autonomous region of Zanzibar. Since 1996 the official capital of Tanzania has been Dodoma, but the country’s biggest city and former capital, the Indian Ocean seaport of Dar es Salaam, remains the de facto seat of most government institutions. The name Tanzania derives from the names of two states, Tanganyika, formerly a German colony known as German East Africa, and Zanzibar, a former British protectorate, that united in 1964. (See <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tanzania>)

Day 6 – Thursday, November 26:

Morning excursion to Lake Victoria where we take a boat ride and visit a local village. After lunch return to Serengeti National Park with the option of a full afternoon’s safari or free time. Lunch and dinner will be included.

Day 7 – Friday, November 27:

Today we return to the Ngorongoro area via the "Road of the Kopjes." Look out for “big cats” such as lions, leopards and cheetahs! Picnic lunch en route. In the afternoon we explore the Ngorongoro Conservation Area, which, unlike the regular National parks, is also inhabited by humans. This is the homeland of the Maasai, a tribe of nomadic pastoralists who have maintained their traditional lifestyle and coexist with the local wildlife. Visiting a Maasai village, you will experience Africa as it was a few hundred years ago! Today we will also be able to admire some remarkable geological features, such as the Nasseria Rock, a huge monolith that is home to all sorts of game and birds, shifting dunes of volcanic ash, sacred to the Maasai, and Olkarien Gorge, a canyon inhabited by a colony of vultures. Dinner and overnight again in the 4-star Bashay Rift Lodge. How about a swim in the pool before dinner?

Day 8 – Saturday, November 28 and Day 9 – Sunday, November 29:

Two-day safari in Tarangire National Park, the greatest concentration of wildlife outside the Serengeti ecosystem, and famous for its rare antelopes, such as the kudu, the oryx and the gerenuk - a smorgasbord for predators! Picnic lunch on both days, and dinner and overnight in the small but exquisite Tarangire River Camp, located on a hilltop.

Day 10 – Monday, November 30:

Today we fly from Arusha to Zanzibar. This autonomous part of Tanzania, formerly an independent sultanate a.k.a. “the spice island”, and more recently a British protectorate, is a small island, approximately 90km long and 30km wide, situated in the Indian Ocean just off Tanzania’s “Swahili Coast” (<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Zanzibar>). Arrival and transfer to the beautiful Karafuu Beach Resort Hotel (www.karafuuzanzibar.com), where we will stay in fully equipped air-conditioned cottages. Balance of the day at leisure, and dinner in the hotel’s restaurant.

Day 11 – Tuesday, December 1:

Today is yours to enjoy in Tanzania entirely at leisure. Breakfast and dinner will be served daily. Some optional excursions and activities will be available, for example a boat trip to Kae, one of the most beautiful beaches of the island, including a BBQ lunch, as well as a boat tour featuring a chance to snorkel with a colony of bottle-nose dolphins!

Day 12 – Wednesday, December 2:

Departure from the hotel after breakfast. We’re off on a “spice tour” of this “spice island,” one of the few places in the world where saffron and many other Middle Eastern/Asian spices such as cardamom, ginger, cloves, nutmeg, etc. are grown, including visits to some the beautiful plantations. Also visit to the Jozani Forest, featuring some very exotic (and large) trees and ferns and other tropical types of vegetation and inhabited by a native species of monkeys, the Red Colobus, now nearly extinct. Return to hotel.

A WORD ABOUT GROUP AIR:

Please note that when booking one of our air inclusive tours, Pauwels Travel has negotiated reduced rates with the airline that we are able to confirm and lock in up to 359 days before travel. While it is wonderful to share the savings and flexibility this provides with you our valued guests, the privilege does come with some restrictions. In some cases it may not be possible to collect frequent flyer miles, in some cases you may not be able to check in online 24 hours before travel or you may need to try checking in with your ticket number rather than your booking reference and, in almost ALL cases we are not able to offer advanced seat selection.

It is the airline that makes the live reservation and has control over the booking so it is their policy not ours that prevents us from assigning you specific seats. I assure you if a request is made it is followed up on by our staff when they submit the names to the airline 30- 60 days prior to departure. Calling us several days before you leave will not change this fact nor will getting upset with our staff.

If the ideal seat is an absolute must for you we suggest you book our tour land only and make your own air arrangements so you can better control the individual booking. Pauwels would be happy to assist you with that reservation at absolutely no additional charge. We will offer you the best fare we can find but note this can only be done once a tour is a guaranteed departure and the rules and booking conditions of the applicable airfare will apply.
